

Healtime integrates into the professional healthcare world.

During the day, our application allows digital notes to be taken in the patients' medical records, as well as monitoring treatments and schedules in real time.

This avoids forgetting and mistaking information when caring for caregivers, thus increases the efficiency of care.